NOTES

I started this journey in 2008 when I saw the Sons of Korah in concert at ECC. They sang the psalms to original music and told some of the back stories at the same time. I thought, "This is amazing...maybe I could do this with music AND drama!" So I started reading David's life and piecing together the stories connected with the known psalms of David.

My goal has always been to create a one-man-musical that helps us experience David's life and the music that came out of that same life of faith. This is "His Word, Our Walk" in action! David wasn't trying to write the next Top-Ten Worship Song for Israel. He was living his life, with all the pain and struggle that comes with it, and expressing his faith to God along the way.

He was anointed King.
 He killed a giant and became a hero.
 His Father-in-law, Saul, tried to kill him multiple times.
 He got married.
 His friends were massacred for helping him.
 He hid in the desert.

And through it all, he trusted in God. Today, I hope you experience a small piece of David's life and are encouraged to live out your own faith. Whatever happens in your life...when you kill a giant...or when your spirit is faint within you...God knows your way. Trust him.
